A. W. Bullard has filled his new ice house chuck full of ice from the Coffield pond.

Ordway well, No. 5 was shot about the middle of last week and proved to be a pretty good little oil well.

We hear quite a good many commenting upon the TIMES since the new editor has assumed control of it.

C. A. Cox, of Chanut, was in town Wednesday of this week looking after legal business in Justice Campbell's court.

We don't hear much from little "Dunsy, The Bald Hornet" of Neosho. Wonder what's the matter with him up there at Topeka this winter?

Joe Geist, our affable and rustling butcher had about 15 men at work several days last week filling his ice house with ice from lake Richmond.

Arthur Carter, of the Chanut Racket accidentally passed through town last Sunday and took occasion to stop off for a few hours. Strange wasn't it?

The peaches and cream social at the residence of A. M. Whittaker, given under the auspices of the Ladies of the Christian church last week was a decided success.

Our young people enjoyed themselves hugely last week skating on the Nelson pond. Almost every night skating parties could be seen making their way in that direction.

Al Stapleton is home again and has assumed charge of the A. T. & S. F. section hands as foreman, the position he occupied when he left some six months ago to take charge of the steel gang.

G. W. Lawrence and Son are now nicely situated in their new quarters commonly known as the old Kellogg Stand, they having moved their stock of merchandise into the same last Thursday and Friday.

E. M. Benbow, of Chetopa, state organizer for the Patriarchs of America organized a lodge here last Thursday night. Quite a few Patriarchs came down from Chanut.
